P. E. Harris & Co.,
False Pass, Alaska.

Gentlemen:

Prior to the time of issuing your permit to pack 54,000 cases of Salmon in the Alaska Peninsula Fisheries Reservation in 1922, the Department of Commerce had before it the facts substantially as outlined in your letter to me of June 20, 1922; signed by your President, Mr. P. Under the circumstances, you have been permitted to continue packing and to exceed the 54,000 cases covered by the original permit, pending my arrival here for a final conference with Dr. C. H. Gilbert, Special Assistant of the Bureau of Fisheries of the Department.

After conferring today with Dr. Gilbert, and in view of advices from the Commissioner of Fisheries, Washington, D. C., you are hereby notified that all fishing for Salmon by virtue of the said permit and extension thereof pending my arrival, must cease on and after 6:00 p.m., July 10, 1922. Thereafter you will be permitted to pack only such fish as may have been caught by your traps and purse seines prior to 6:00 p.m., July 10, 1922.

Very truly yours,

C. H. HUSTON

Assistant Secretary of Commerce.
